Healthcare Powers of Attorney and Living Wills:

Why They are So Important

Presentation by Michelle Berk, Elderlaw Attorney

While most of us know what health care decisions we'd make for ourselves, what happens if – because of illness – you can't act on your own behalf? Do your loved ones and doctors know your wishes? If not, now is the time to act...and create an advance directive.

Thursday, June 21st from 3 to 4 PM in the Community Room

State Representative Madeleine Dean's Office is able to help with any state government related issue that you might have. Meghan Janoson, Director of Constituent Services, will talk about how they can help.

Vehicle Services, Rent Rebate, Prescription Assistance, Fishing Licenses, Employment Resources, Veteran Assistance, Senior Safe Driving, Yellow Dot Program, Do Not Call List, Voting Information, Birth Certificates, Unclaimed Property.

Refreshments will be provided. All are welcome!
